(The pro hac vice admission fee is $100.00 for cases filed before February 1, 2001, and $50.00 for cases filed on or after that date, and shall be paid to the Clerk. No admission under Rule 83.14 is effective until such time as the fee has been paid.)

NOTE: Attorneys seeking to appear pro hac vice may wish to consider filing a petition for admission to the general bar of the Court. The fee for admission to the General Bar is $150.00. The fee for pro hac vice admission is $100.00 for cases filed before February 1, 2001, and $50.00 for cases filed on or after that date. Admission to the general bar permits an attorney to practice before this Court. Pro hac vice admission entitles an attorney to appear in a particular case only. Application for such admission must be made in each case; and the admission fee must be paid in each case.

ADDENDUM TO MOTION FOR LEAVE TO APPEAR PRO HAC VICE

In addition to the courts listed on page 1 of the Motion for Leave to Appear Pro Hac Vice, I, Mary Yelenick, am a member in good standing and eligible to practice in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (1982), United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit (2010), United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit (2006), United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit (1995), United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit (1981), and Supreme Court of the United States (1992). Although I am admitted to practice and am a member in good standing in the District of Columbia (1979), I am currently inactive. I have not been denied admission to nor have I been subject to discipline by any Court.
